I thought of you as I stood in Shakespeare's birthplace, and wandered through this beautiful garden that you so often told us about. I am quite home with England, and most of all with Stratford!
You can almost feel Shakespeare here -
with much love
Deller. P. Le Vescont.

The Middle Temple Hall. In Fountain Court with its trees and flowers and sparkling water is Middle Temple Hall, a fine Elizabethan building used as a Dining Room and noted for its handsome old oak ceilings. Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" was acted in this Hall in the poet's lifetime.

I intended writing a long letter but have been ill 5 days with a cold. My love to all of you and very best wishes.
I saw the Kali-Grenaway 1st edition that went off yesterday from the Bones.
much love. Sabl.
